Member Resource Guide
Colorado School Public Relations Association
2009

The 2008-2009 CoSPRA Executive Committee is proud to provide its members with this 2009 Member Resource Guide. No matter the kind of advice and counsel you're seeking, from governmental relations to public engagement, this guide is your answer to making life as a school public relations professional a little easier.

This resource guide includes information on how to get advice and counsel in any one of the 21 identified public relations functions that are vital to the work of the school PR professional. Under each PR function, you'll find a list of CoSPRA member names along with their contact information. Next to their name is a number in parentheses. Members were asked to identify the top three PR functions they felt most comfortable giving advice and counsel. Their number one selection is denoted by (1) next to their name, their second selection (2) and finally their third selection (3).

We hope you find this resource guide useful. Thank you for your continued support of CoSPRA and its nearly 80 members.

Joe Ferdani
2008-2009 CoSPRA President
